Readers' CHOICE 2016 THE MORNING CALL

Looking for the finest local merchants? They're all here in Readers' Choice

Welcome to The Morning Call's 13th annual reader-selected look at the 'best-of' Lehigh Valley businesses.

One of the many things that makes the Lehigh Valley a great place to work, live and relax in is the number of businesses that ensure their customers get the very best products and services. Yet even among all these outstanding businesses, some have set themselves apart by going above and beyond. How do we know? Because our readers tell us.

Each year, readers of The Morning Call take time out of their busy schedules to vote for businesses that are No. 1 in a given category. If you're a winner, it's because you've earned the most votes from members of the community — the people who actually shop at the stores, eat at the restaurants, visit the physicians and employ the services of businesses throughout the greater Lehigh Valley region. It means you're doing an outstanding job, and it also means this is a true Reader's Choice contest.

Votes were cast through ballots in The Morning Call and on themorningcall.com in July and August. The first-place winners are listed online and in this special newspaper section, along with photos of some of the lucky enterprises and individuals who took home the titles.

Sarah Evans/The Morning Call
Congratulations to C.E. Roth Formal Wear, LLC who won for best "Formal Wear" and best "Tuxedo Rental" again this year. They have won one and/or the other category for the past 13 years.

The Morning Call thanks all the readers who voted in this year's exciting challenge. We invite all members of the Lehigh Valley community to patronize those businesses that earned the title of "Readers' Choice" and see what everyone is talking about.

Thank you,

Jim Feher
