Looking for businesses that connect the community? They're all here in Readers' Choice.

Welcome to The Morning Call's 15th annual reader-selected 'best-of' Lehigh Valley businesses.

What do a corn farmer, a home décor store, a sushi restaurant, a day spa and pet groomer have in common? They're among the businesses in the Lehigh Valley where you, area residents, are accustomed to getting the very best customer service from reliable, friendly staff members who have set themselves apart by going above and beyond for their customers. They're the places you return to again and again because of customer engagement, reliability, and those who know that there's value in going the extra mile. They're the places you'd recommend to your friends, neighbors, and colleagues. How do we know? Because for the 15th year, you've told us.

This annual section would not be possible year after year without our readers. Sure, we may sell the ads, put together the content and the photos, and design the pages. But every year, we rely on our readers to take the time to vote — to pick the people and places, the food and drinks, the health and wellness centers, the best home repairmen — and determine who stands out as the best of the best.

Readers' Choice has never been about what a bunch of newsroom staffers think about local businesses. This has always been about the voices of the Valley's residents — the people who soak up the local culture, who visit the local doctors, whose kids train in the local gymnastics centers and pick pumpkins at local farms. So if your business is a winner, stop and think about what that means about your place in the community. You're providing services to the people who call the area home. You take pride in what you do. People notice. And this is the people's way of saying "thank you."

Everybody associated with Readers' Choice benefits from it because it provides a direct connection with readers and a direct connection with the community. From the nomination process through the tallying of the votes and up through the final edits of this special section, Readers' Choice gives The Morning Call inside information about where the people we're writing for tend to frequent. It shows us how you appreciate the cities, towns and boroughs that make up the region. It reminds us that there are hard workers everywhere, across all types of businesses.

The first-place winners in more than 300 categories are listed online and in the pages of this section, along with photos of the people who make the Lehigh Valley the best place to work — and live. We thank our readers for their votes. We thank area businesses for their commitment. And nothing would thrill us more than continuing to see community members patronizing those establishments that have earned the title of "Readers' Choice."

Thank you,

Jim Feher
